Besides others, Governor Punjab Sardar latif Ahamd Khosa, Federal Minister Samina Khalid Ghurki, Makhdoom Shahab-ud-Din, Imtiaz Safdar Warriach, Sami Ulalh Khan and Tanvir Ashraf kaira were also present on the occasion.

Lahore: Governor Punjab Sardar Latif Ahmed Khosa and Chairperson Benazir Income Support Programme (BISP), Ms. Farzana Raja distributing Waseela-e-Haq cheques to BISP beneficiaries here in Governor House Lahore. Imtiaz Safdar Warraich, Sami-ullah-Khan, Tanveer Ashraf Kaira, Chaudhary Manzoor and DG BISP Punjab Shahid Aslam Mohar also present on the occasion (Dated: Aug 06, 2011).

Ms. Farzana Raja said lauded the efforts and vision of the President Asif Ali Zardari and the Prime Minister Yousaf Raza Gilani for advancing the mission of Shaheed Benazir Bhutto. She said that Shaheed Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto had sacrificed her life to serve the people of Pakistan and to protect their rights. Hence, she said, we will not allow anybody to create hurdles between the poor people of Pakistan and the BISP which is established to serve them. She said that we will achieve the mission of Shaheed Zulfiqar Ali Bhutto and Shaheed Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto of making Pakistan a welfare state.

Lahore: Governor Punjab Sardar Latif Ahmed Khosa and Chairperson Benazir Income Support Programme (BISP), Ms. Farzana Raja distributing Waseela-e-Haq cheques to BISP beneficiaries here in Governor House Lahore. Imtiaz Safdar Warraich, Sami-ullah-Khan, Tanveer Ashraf Kaira, Chaudhary Manzoor and DG BISP Punjab Shahid Aslam Mohar also present on the occasion (Dated: Aug 06, 2011).

Chairperson BISP said that all the families registered with BISP are being included in the balloting under Waseela-e-Haq. Besides, she said, every registered family is being covered by life insurance of Rs. One lac and a member from each registered family would be imparted with vocational/technical training under Waseela-e-Rozgar initiative.

Ms. Farzana Raja said that some elements are busy in spreading baseless rumors and allegations against the BISP. However, these facts are befitting responses that till now, more than Rs. 88 billion have been distributed among the poor of the country by BISP and only Rs. 25 billion have been distributed among the families recommended by the parliamentarians belonging to PPP. Likewise, more than Rs. 13 billion has been distributed on the recommendations of the parliamentarians belonging to the party of Mian Nawaz Sharif.

She announced on the occasion that during coming September and October, one million children of the beneficiary families of the BISP would be sent to school. She added further that on the directions of the president and the prime minister of Pakistan, measures are being taken to dole out all the financial assistance among the beneficiary families through Benazir Smart Card instead of post offices.

Governor Punjab Sardar Iftikhar Ahmed Khosa also spoke on the occasion and said that BISP has been declared as a most transparent programme in the social sector by the various prestigious institutions of the world. He said that BISP has introduced state of the art technology to serve and facilitate the poor of the country and has proved that Pakistan is not a backward country. He concluded that the present democratic government would complete its term of five years and would keep serving the people of Pakistan. Ends
