

February 11, 2013

International organizations have shown full confidence in BISP and acknowledged it as a model for other countries.

Madam Farzana Raja addressed the officers attending Midcareer Management Course by NCRD.

Islamabad, February 11, 2013: “Benazir Income Support Programme (BISP) is a revolutionary programme, transparency and latest technology is its niche. Many international organizations have not only shown full confidence in it but has acknowledged it as a model for other countries” said Madam Farzana Raja while addressing the officers from various institutions attending Midcareer Management Course organized by National Centre for Rural Development NCRD.

ISLAMABAD: Federal Minister and Chairperson Benazir Income Support Programme (BISP), Madame Farzana Raja addressing to the officers of different services groups during Mid Career Management Course (MCMC) organized by National Institute of Management (NIM) at National Centre for Rural Development (NCRD). Dated: February 11, 2013

On the occasion she said BISP is an important initiative for poverty alleviation in Pakistan which will help reduce poverty and will enable poor youth to acquire vocational and technical training and become self reliant.

Answering the questions from the course participants she said that BISP is playing its role in empowering women, imparting technical education to youth, providing access to health facilities and ensuring primary education of children between the ages of 5 to 12 years.

Brid (R) Aman Ullah Khan, Director General, NCRD appreciated Madam Farzana Raja's commitment and BISP's role in providing welfare to disadvantaged families and said that owing to her untiring efforts for poor masses, Madam Farzana has been conferred upon the Crescent of Excellence (Hilal-e-Imtiaz). He added that Bangladesh along with India also plans to implement programme like BISP in its country.