

January 20, 2010

BISP will extend assistance program to seventy lakh needy families within coming three years. Farzana Raja

Chairperson Benazir Income Support program Farzana Raja has said that BISP will extend assistance program to seventy lakh needy families within coming three years. She also said that through Waseela-e-Haq three lac Rupees provide to BISP Beneficiaries through computerized Draw.

Caption: Federal Minister/Chairperson Benazir Income Support Programme (BISP) Farzana Raja addressing a press conference at BISP's provincial office in Lahore.

Waseela-e-Haq fourth draw BISP has provided three lakh rupees to each 762 families through computerized draw. Through this amount they will start their own business without any trouble.

She said that test phase survey of poverty alleviation has been completed in 15 Districts and will start soon in more than 20 selected districts in whole Pakistan She also said that in south Asia first time we introduced poverty survey.

She added that our main objective to alleviate poverty from Pakistan as soon as possible.

She was addressing in press conference at provincial office Lahore. She said that BISP is a biggest to poverty alleviation program in South Asia. Through this program twenty-seven lakh families are benefiting every month she added.

Farzana Raja also said that through

Chairperson BISP has said that through this program we have introduced Benazir Smart Card and we will start very soon Health Insurance and vocational training to BISP families. She said that present government is working for common people.