

January 5, 2010

Shaheed Z. A. Bhutto defended the rights of the people till death instead of bending in front of tyranny

Pakistan People's Party is proud to be the representing voice of the poor:
Farzana Raja

Federal Minister/Chairperson Benazir Income Support Programme Farzana Raja addresses a public gathering at Liaquat Bagh on the 82nd birth anniversary of Shaheed Zulfikar Ali Bhutto.

Pakistan People's Party is proud to be the representing voice of the poor, middle and working classes of the people. Quaid-e-Awam Shaheed Zulfikar Ali Bhutto defended the rights of the people till death instead of bending in front of tyranny, said the federal minister and chairperson Benazir Income Support Programme Ms. Farzana Raja in her address to a public meeting at Liaquat Bagh on the occasion of the 82nd birth anniversary of Shaheed Zulfikar Ali Bhutto.

She said that Shaheed Bhutto struggled for a democratic and developed Pakistan. He gave Pakistan its nuclear programme. He fought for the rights of the poor and labour class and raised the slogan of Roti, Kapra aur Makaan. Shaheed Bhutto initiated administrative reforms. Mohtarma Farzana Raja said that Shaheed Bhutto held Islamic Summit in 1974 to unite the Muslim world and it was Shaheed Bhutto who negotiated the return of 93,000 Pakistani soldiers, and it was also Shaheed Bhutto whose efforts let the nation have a unanimous constitution in 1973.

She further said that the present government is taking the mission of Shaheed Bhutto ahead under the guidance of the president Mr. Asif Ali Zardari and the prime minister Mr. Yusuf Raza Gilani. The government enjoys full support of the public. She said that the government is following a policy of reconciliation. We gave Baluchistan its rights. We freed all political prisoners and we are taking the nation along with us in the war against terrorism.